

RECYCLE YOUR CELL PHONE to help save gorillas in the wild.

For more information, visit:
www.houstonzoo.org/actionforapes

Handheld electronic devices like cell phones contain a material called tantalum. Tantalum comes from coltan, a metallic ore that is destructively mined in gorilla habitats in the African Congo.

You can help by recycling your everyday handheld devices, such as cell phones and tablets.

Action for Apes