

2022 Zoo Crew Historian Leadership Position Description

General Summary

The Zoo Crew Historian is an unpaid leadership position in support of the overall Zoo Crew Program in which you will be responsible for helping grow Zoo Crew's online presence, document Zoo Crew activities, and share photos/videos through various media outlets. The Zoo Crew Historian will have the opportunity to hone their photography/videography skills by capturing moments and activities from each section of Zoo Crew including Camp Mentor, Naturalist, Career Week, and Junior Zookeeper.

They will also be building leadership skills as they take an active role on our Leadership Council and provide insight into how we can improve the Zoo Crew program. This position requires a high level of energy and enthusiasm, creativity, flexibility, and the ability to work with groups of all ages in both in and outdoor settings.

Roles and Responsibilities

The Zoo Crew Historian is a leadership position within the Zoo Crew program. Responsibilities may include, but are not limited to:

- Serve as a member of the Leadership Council and participate in meetings and activities to prepare for the summer program.
- Create posts highlighting Zoo Crew on Houston Zoo social media accounts.
- Take photos and short videos of Zoo Crew participating in Camp Mentors, Naturalist, Junior Zookeeper, and in Career Week and post these regularly on Smugmug.
- If asked by Camp Staff, take photos of campers participating in Camp Zoofari and assist in sharing them to Smugmug.
- Create an End of Session Video that documents all aspects of Zoo Crew. This should include short videos and music associated with Camp Mentor, Naturalist, Career Week, and returning Zoo Crew.
- You may be asked to complete different projects based on the activities or events that occur during your session.
- May be asked to act as a fill-in in other Zoo Crew section as needed.
- Will act as a go-to if questions arise for first year Zoo Crew.
